The AWWA is pleased to be collaborating with the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) and the Partnership for Safe Water to hold a free workshop geared toward small water utility systems entitled “Small Systems Cybersecurity Training.” The workshop will be presented online in two parts on May 18 and May 19 from 12:30 PM-3:30 PM HST on each day.

The workshop is primarily targeted towards small Public Water Systems serving fewer than 2,500 persons but should also be of interest to larger utilities. The target audience is water operators, water managers, engineers, water board members, and others involved with operations and management of small PWSs.

The trainer for both workshops will be Kyla Jacobsen, former Utility Director for the City of Elgin Water Department and Trustee for AWWA for Distribution and Plant Operations Divisions. The moderator will be John Donahue, past AWWA President and current CEO at North Park Public Water District in Rockford, Illinois.

Day 1—Cybersecurity:

- Why is Cybersecurity Important?
- Self-Assessment Questionnaire
- Cybersecurity Controls for Small Utilities

Day 2—Optimization and Accessing Funding:
